

DELIRIUM FILMS was founded in 2003. in Belgrade (Serbia), by director and screenwriter Srdjan Dragojevic and producer Biljana Prvanovic.

In it's production DELIRIUM FILMS has 6 feature film, 1 TV series, 1 TV movie, many short films, ads and commercials.

As a co-producer, it has 5 feature fiction film.

Their films were some of the most successful Serbian and regional projects in last 20 years based on the box office and official Film Center Serbia reports.

Also, films by Srdjan Dragojevic, produced by Delirium were in selections of Berlin, Locarno and many other significant festivals where they won multiple awards.

So far 3 of their projects were supported by EURIMAGE, MDM Fund, ZDF/ARTE, Hessen Film Fund and films "The Parade" and "Heavens Above" were acquired by HBO Europe and were broadcasted by German and French ZDF/ARTE channels.

Feature fiction film "We are not angels 2" was their most successful regional film in 2000s with over 700.000 viewers in cinemas.

Feature fiction film "The Parade" with more than 600.00 admissions and worldwide distribution in over 27 countries. Film was in official selection of numerous festivals and it won 3 awards at Berlinale Film Festival, including Panorama Audience Award.

Feature fiction film "Heavens Above" had world premiere at Locarno Film festival where it won Prize of the Independent Young Jury and was screened at another 28 film festivals.

Currently they are developing and financing 5 feature fiction films, 1 feature documentary film and 1 short fiction film.